White Salami

White Salami is a chocolate dessert made in a shaped remind of 'Salami,' an Italian smoked sausage. It is a chocolate made to be cut and eaten like a salami, and it is 100% handmade chocolate made by professional chocolat-ier. Ecuadorian-made pure and original white chocolate, sweet and sour dried fruits, and savory nuts combine to give you a special taste. When you put it in your mouth, it melts softly, and makes the texture colorful because various dry fruits and nuts are chewed chewy and crunchy. Especially, it's good for wine and match well with single malt whiskey and beer.

Milk Salami

Milk Salami is a chocolate dessert made in a shaped remind of 'Salami,' an Italian smoked sausage. It is a chocolate made to be cut and eaten like a salami, and it is 100% handmade chocolate made by professional chocolat-ier. The chocolate in the Milk Salami is a Grand Cru-class milk chocolate made from Ecuadorian-made cacao bean, and it's soft and has harmonious rich scent of milk, caramel, and vanilla. Hazelnut praline, which made by caramelizing hazelnuts and grinding them finely with a mixer, makes the taste of Milk Salami richer and contains the savory taste of high-quality nuts. You can enjoy a pleasant chewing taste by putting dark 70% natural chocolate and crispy crepe pieces made by Treetobar. It's a perfect chocolate that shows both special and fancy.

Natural Chocolate

Natural chocolate is a chocolate that can taste the flavor and rich sweetness of fruits by permeating cacao pulp into cacao bean because it is harvested cacao fruits and fermented and dried without removing cacao pulp. There is no emulsifier or preservative added so you can enjoy the original taste of cacao. Natural chocolate is made through a chocolate maker at Treetobar's cacao factory, all of the processes from selecting cacao beans to roasting, winnowing, conching, ageing, tempering, molding, and producing a chocolate bar.

Thinkign chair Poppy_ R

The Poppy-R chair is a thinking chair, refreshing young minds and offering their parents a little relief. We are committed to designing and selling furniture made entirely from natural wood.

Jewellery

Our jewellery is made from completely natural material - a lot of our items are silver, and some of them gold. Our signature collection uses the outline of the almond blossom, returning again to porgabé's central philosophy. Whether it's one of our pendants or a porgabé bangle, the minimal design is a subtle nod to Van Gogh's beautiful flowers.

STACKUP

As environmental problems become more serious these days, many people are using various bottles, tumblers, and lunch boxes. But We thought there were many inconveniences that existing products had. We develop multi-use living containers that can be used for longer due to 'module structure' and 'good materials'. We want to provide innovative products that can be replaced even if they are broken, reducing discarded products and allowing users to enjoy household goods for a long time.
